

_ImageLibrary

The children of this page contain information which is included in other pages. This is a library of re-usable images for various screens within the APM and Lab 50 software packages.

If you want to change any of these pages, be aware that:

- Changing page names is problematic — you will need to change all the include and excerpt-include macros manually.
- The content is used in many places — make sure your change is generic enough to fit the contexts in which the pages are used.
